Pastor Ed's Schedule—Though his schedule is somewhat flexible, plans are for Pastor Ed to be on site each week from Saturday evening to Wednesday around 4:30 pm. Regular office hours will be between 9:00 am and 4:00 pm. Please feel free to call or drop by for a visit. He will also be available to meet for breakfast, lunch, or supper, or in the evening as other duties permit.

Pastor Ed has a website! This week he writes Thoughts on Halloween. Check it out at secondwindministries.ca

Thank you for the privilege you have extended to me to serve as your Transition Pastor for the next months as the Lord leads. It is humbling to be called to serve in this role knowing the privilege and responsibility it entails. I so need God's special help and grace for it all. I know the Elders too feel very dependent on the Lord and so we are trusting you will pray for us daily in this process. I look forward to getting to know as many people and families as possible during this time, and to seeing how God will lead during this time. Let's trust God together for His blessing in this time. Pastor Ed Drewlo
